Circuit Court Convenes

Circuit Court convened at Stanton Monday morning, with Judge Shackelford presiding and Commonwealth's Attorney, B. A. Crutcher, prosecuting.

The grand jury was empaneled, as was the petit jury. A strong charge was delivered to the grand jury and it went on to its work. Several cases were tried during the day with neatness and dispatch.

The Judge adjourned the court after the first day's session, to Monday, July 10th. This was heartily approved by all in attendance, especially the farmers, who are so far behind with crops owing to the wet weather of the past few weeks.

The following visiting attorneys were observed in attendance:—J. Smith Hays and C. F. Spencer, Winchester; J. B. White and Kelly Kash, Irvine; A. F. Byrd, Lexington; J. K. Roberts, Beattyville, A. H. and G. B. Stamper, Campton, Tom Theobald, Grayson, D. B. Berry, Lexington.

A number of county onlookers, and some from adjoining counties, were present.

At Irvine--From Stanton

John D. Atkinson and Dr. Lemming, of Stanton, have been in attendance at the Estill Circuit Court at Irvine, this week.

Mr. Atkinson went to testify as a witness in the Raydure-McKinney oil case, he having been an attorney in some of the litigation ten years ago.

Dr. Lemming was a witness in suit to set aside a royalty deed in which it was claimed that advantage had been taken of a widow who was incapable of taking care of her business. The trial of this latter case had Wednesday and the deed annulled and set aside.

The Bond Sale

The bond sale, which terminated June 15th, was, from every point, a decided success. The amount was oversubscribed nearly one billion dollars. The city of Lexington oversubscribed 60 per cent, while the Lexington district oversubscribed 20 per cent.

Powell county was allotted $50,000 and bought $45,000 in bonds. Of this, the Clay City National Bank handled $35,000, the rest of the county the remaining $10,000. This speaks well for the Clay City National. But it is accustomed to taking the lead in all enterprises.

Candidates Register

Quite a number of the various candidates for county offices registered at Stanton Monday. In fact, it seems that most of them did register on that day. The law provides that all candidates must register, giving certain information, certified to by two voters, at least thirty days before the primary comes off. There is plenty of time yet to register, but the candidates seemed inclined to take time by the forelock, and so be in ample time.

Prospects are splendid for a very large crop of fine potatoes.

T. B. Ware For Assessor

T. B. Ware, of Virdean, announces in this issue of the Times for Assessor of Powell county, subject, of course, to the action of the Democratic party.

Mr. Ware has been a constant voter for Democracy now for forty-five years. This proves his faith in party regularity. He has served one term as Sheriff, several years ago, when he made a good officer.

Mr. Ware is a splendid gentleman and fully worthy any trust the people of the county may confide in him. Any consideration given him will be most heartily appreciated by him and his many friends.

Mt. Sterling Court

A big run of cattle, fully 3,000 head, was on the market Monday Courtday. The quality, while fair, was not as good as last Court. Trade though was better and prices fully as high. Some 800-pound steers sold at $9 by weight, by the head higher; yearlings fully as high; heifers $7.50 to $8; cows at $6.50 to $7.50; bulls at $7 to $7.50. There was a fair sized crowd at the pens and while sales were not brisk, quite a number of cattle changed hands during the day, but quite a number were left over unsold. They were mostly light stuff of common quality.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Mule Sales

D. R. Daniel sold one pair of mules last week to Willie Doll at Pilot for $500; one pair to O. L. Daniel for $400; one pair to Mack Daniel at Bowen for $400; one pair to P. A. Wolfenbarger of Irvine for $360. He bought at Irvine one odd mule for $140 and another for $135.

Forty-Six Degrees

Last Friday, June 15th, was the coldest day of that date on record. Fires were kept burning in most houses and places of business. The thermometer registered 46 degrees, when, for that time of year, it is oftener twice that—92 degrees—or even more.

GENET

(Too late for last week.)

Crops of all kinds looking fine.

David Howell made a flying trip to Xena last Monday.

Rodney Allen of Rosslyn was transacting business here the first of the week.

Lilburn Maloney of Jeffersonville, Ky., was a business visitor here recently.

Will Edwards of Cane Creek passed through here some days ago driving some cattle.

T. M. Beckett of Campton passed through here last Monday enroute to his oil wells at Xena.

S. S. Miller of West Virginia was here not long since, looking up land titles that cover some oil and gas leases.

Charley Friend, well-known attorney of Irvine, was here last week putting the finishing touch to some oil and gas royalties.

Don't Lose Your Head

In every crowd there is always somebody who is ready to yell "fire!" Then the panic starts. When order is restored everybody wonders why everybody else lost his head.

When President Wilson issued his war proclamation and called upon the people of the United States to conserve their resources for the struggle ahead, he did not mean that they should stop spending money. He did mean that useless expenditures should stop, but that was nothing new. Business consists of buying and selling. Certain kinds of business are fundamental. The building business is one of them.

There need be no curtailment in building or road construction. Let both public and private useful building construction proceed. Production and handling of building materials and public and private construction work are fundamental industries of the country. Any tendency to suspend or postpone building projects is inconsistent with maintaining our prosperity. The country is prosperous. Building investors should not hesitate to go ahead with their plans. Railroads should spare no effort to supply the building industry with the cars needed to transport materials. Government, state, county and municipal authorities should encourage the continuance of all kinds of buildings. Road and street improvements in particular should go on, unabated. Bad roads and streets are factors of first importance in the present high cost of foodstuffs. Never before was the improvement of highways so essential.

Every man's duty is the same. Your job is your duty. My job is my duty. Each of us can do his part most effectively by redoubling present endeavors at whatever his occupation may be. If we are railroading, let us railroad for all we are worth. If we are farmers, put the same speed in our farming. If we are mining, let us mine as never before. Let us do the same with making shoes, making clothes, building houses, factories, skyscrapers, roads, or whatever it may be.

Howard E. Coffin, of the Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense, says, "No radically new condition confronts us. State activities, road building, public works, private industries,—all must go on as before. Business must be increased, labor employed, and the country kept going strongly ahead as a successfully economic machine. We must have successful industries if successful tax levies are to be raised."

District S. S. Convention

Mr. Redwine, State S. S. Worker, will be at Rosslyn, July 1st, to hold a convention for the 2nd District of Powell county.

Sessions will be held at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The Sunday Schools in that District are:—Rosslyn, Stanton U. P., Stanton Christian, Hatcher's Creek, Cat Creek, Spencer, Mt. Canaan and Hatton Creek.

BUFORD ESTES.

County Secretary.

STANTON.

(By P. O. Derthick.)

Mrs. Harmon is visiting her parents in Ohio this week.

C. L. Jones, of Jackson, was here Tuesday of this week on tie business.

Miss Bessie Hardwick is home for a short visit and returns Friday to Lexington.

Orrin Snowden will move his family to the Furnace Wednesday of this week, if the weather permits.

Mrs. Bettie Hardwick left last week for Winchester, where she will visit her son J. H. Hardwick for several days.

Clint Wright killed a large copperhead snake near his home last week that measured 4 feet and 4 inches in length.

Mrs. Belle Hancock, of Richmond, Va., is visiting her brother, Wm. Hardwick, and her sister, Mrs. Sarah Blackburn.

Dudley Caudell and Miss Malinda Hatton, who have been attending the State Normal at Richmond, have returned home.

Tilford Abney has returned from a visit to his son Sherman in Wolfe county. His daughter Patsy will stay for several weeks longer.

Miss Beatrice Blount won first place in the girls' Brown Oratorical Contest at Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio. She won a prize of $20.

An oil well is being drilled on J. D. Atkinson's place. We trust that a fine well will be struck and others will soon be drilled in and around Stanton.

Miss Maude Bowen, of Slade, took the State Teachers' Examination at Frankfort and made a grade of ninety-five and nine-tenths. That is pretty good.

Miss Minnie Conlee, Miss Derickson and Miss Peggy Lyle visited Mrs. T. O. Piersall, enroute to their home in Stanton, from a trip to Lexington.—Winchester Democrat.

Miss Maude Bowen was here the opening day of court, where she spoke at the court-house. She and her sister Anna returned Friday from Richmond, where they attended the State Normal.

Rev. L. F. Martin preached at North Bend church Monday night. His wife and children, who have been visiting her parents in Montgomery, met him there and they returned to home at Witt, Ky.

Jonett Boone is home on a visit with his sister Mrs. Morgan Lyle and other relatives. He was in the officers' training camp at Ft. Harrison in Indiana, and was able to stand the rigorous training.

Miss Julia Robbins, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Chaney at Ravenna, has returned home. Mrs. Chaney came with her for a short visit to her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Sherman Robbins.

A letter to the writer from Mr. Hollingsworth, a student of Muskingum College, says that Rev.

After Business

A representative of a Cincinnati creamery was here Tuesday to see the few different farmers in the county who are now shipping cream to market. He represents a good firm and succeeded in getting several of the farmers to make a change. He made a whirlwind campaign in his automobile, covering the territory in one day. The only unfortunate thing about this business is that more farmers are not cream shippers. It has been stated by a leading farmer of Fayette county that he has found out that it takes no more feed to produce a pound of butter than it does to produce a pound of beef, and the price for the butter is always more than double the price of the beef.

We hope to see more cream men come into our midst, and to see them go to all the farmers instead of just the few cream shippers. We have been telling them of the profits in shipping cream. They either don't believe us, or don't want the profits bad enough, or they have not the cows or money to buy them. These persons might listen to the arguments of one more experienced than ourselves.

Steve Strange Injured.

While employed in doing some very important railroad work on the W-I. Division of the L. & N. near Harget, last Friday, Steve Strange, foreman of the crew, fell from a cut a distance of seventeen feet, and sustained severe bruises and cuts and a fractured arm. He will be laid up for several days.

J. Kelly Giffin, who will be the new Principal of Stanton College, and Mrs. Giffin, are very fine people. Bro. Giffin was assistant and private secretary to Dr. Montgomery, President of that College, and taught English and Latin for years after graduating. He is a pastor of great ability and is liked by his people very much. Rev. and Mrs. Hanley have left a splendid work for Bro. Giffin to carry on, and we trust that the new church which Bro. Hanley has done so much toward having built, will soon be under construction.

Mrs. John W. Williams and sister, Mrs. Kate Bohannon, returned from Philadelphia Sunday night. Mrs. Williams had been called by telegram to see her son Harvey Wells, serving in 2nd Bat. 5th Regiment, U. S. Marine Corps. His company had been ordered to France. She arrived just two hours before her son went aboard one of Uncle Sam's big battleships. Harvey had been promoted to corporal and was proud of his uniform and squad of men he had to train, and that he had been selected as one of Gen. Pershing's 2,600 marines. We are glad to hear of Harvey's good success and we know that he will make good wherever he goes. Mrs. Williams and her sister visited New York City before returning home.

DO YOUR BIT; HELP WIN WAR

War Prohibition to be Settled Soon.
Within Next Few Days.

Food Supply of America Recognized as Decisive Factor in Great War and Congress is about to Act on Proposal to Stop the Manufacture of Liquor. Write your Senators and Congressmen.

The Prohibition issue to stop the use of Grain for making either Beer or Whisky during the War will be Settled by Congress within a few days. The Food Supply of America is recognized on all sides as a Decisive Factor in the Great War.

Mr. Hoover, the food director at Washington, says the allies must have 900,000,000 bushels of grain and fodder supply, and that the United States must furnish most of it.

According to the report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the year ending June 30, 1916, there were used during that year for the production of distilled spirits in the United States the following materials:

|                  |                  |
|------------------|------------------|
| Corn,            | 32,089,542 bu.   |
| Rye,             | 3,116,902 bu.    |
| Malt,            | 4,480,588 bu.    |
| Wheat,           | 3,373 bu.        |
| Barley,          | 148 bu.          |
| Oats,            | 9,807 bu.        |
| Other materials, | 68,822 bu.       |
| Molasses,        | 152,142,232 gal. |

Omitting wheat, oats, barley and "other materials" and reducing corn, rye, malt and molasses to pounds, we get a total of 3,603,911,916 pounds of grain and molasses.

The census of 1900, vol. 9, pp. 602, gives the following figures as to materials used in the manufacture of fermented liquors:

|         |                    |
|---------|--------------------|
| Corn,   | 483,608,965 pounds |
| Malt,   | 26,385,365 bushels |
| Barley, | 11,323,509 bushels |

This amounts to a total of 2,200,206,146 pounds.

Combining the figures for the manufacture of fermented liquors and distilled spirits, it totals 6,994,311,135 pounds. At a low estimate of its food value, this would supply the food equivalent required for 7,000,000 men a year.

Secretary of Agriculture, Hon. David F. Houston, testifying before the House of Agriculture Committee April 23, 1917, said:

"101,100,000 worth of malt, hops, rice, corn, glucose and other materials are used in making fermented liquor each year. $44,064,000 worth of malt, wheat barley, rye, corn, oats, mill feed, molasses and other materials are used in making whiskey each year. The amount of food products used in making beer and whiskey totals $145,064,000."

Why should the food supply for seven million men be destroyed to make liquor to make men drunk?

When the National Government asks the farmers to raise more food stuff to win the war, it is the patriotic duty of every citizen to insist that this same authority should stop food waste.

Is it good sense to underfeed or starve women and children in order that brewers and distillers may have grain to make poisons and profits?

Why waste seven billion pounds of food stuff when at war, to make liquor that will reduce the efficiency of our army and also destroy the ability of labor to supply food and munitions to keep the army in the field?

Can a nation permanently prosper by using food which sustains life to make beer and whiskey which destroy life?

There should be an avalanche of telegrams and letters from Kentucky to the Senators and your Congressman, urging them to vote for the amendment to stop the waste of grain for making liquors, and play no favorites between beer and whiskey. To exempt beer and make the prohibition apply to whiskey only, would be of little value; besides even from a liquor standpoint, can any good reason be given why a Kentucky Congressman or Senator should vote to protect beer as against whiskey? If a prohibition tax is to be placed on grain to make whiskey, as proposed by the Senate Agricultural Committee, then the same tax should be placed on grain to make beer. Urge Congress to provide for this prohibition direct and not to refer it to anyone else for action. Do it now.

The Familiar Tricks.

Wheat goes down upon a favorable report upon the Kansas crop. It was reported a few weeks ago that Kansas would produce only about 46,000,000 bushels. It is now said by "an expert" that the Kansas crop will amount to 70,000,000 bushels.

Both estimates are guesswork, pure and simple. Both are valuable to gamblers in wheat and valueless to others. Each causes the price of wheat to move and movement is the life of gambling.

The "expert" has perhaps studied the Kansas crop by riding across Kansas from West to East and looking out of a car window, or by tabulating the guesswork of persons who have reported the Kansas crop by small districts in that exact manner.

The owner of a crop of wheat cannot tell what the yield will be till it is threshed. He cannot tell in May or in June what his crop will be. But the yield of a given field might easily be occasioned by discussing the probable yield before a thrasher gang with the grain in the sheaf, but "experts" can look at the crop of a whole State in January, February, March, April, May and June and provide information sufficient for the gamblers. As a rule the shortage is over estimated until the near approach of the harvest. The old crop is pushed as high as possible. Farmers who sold at $1 or so, see it sell at fancy figures. When the harvest is on the "experts" discover that there is plenty of wheat. The price goes down. The farmers sell.

It is discovered, while the farmers are hauling their wheat to market, that much of the grain was damaged by dampness, or by other agencies, and that a great deal of the crop is not tip-top milling wheat. The farmers must then take such prices as they can get for wheat which, the experts tell them, is not worth the market price, and when the crop is largely out of the hands of the producers the price begins to rise.

The farmers of Kentucky have not up to this time made a war profit from wheat, yet the war price of wheat is the basic element in the war prices of all foodstuffs. As goes wheat so goes the cost of living.

Kentucky could produce two or three times as much wheat as now is produced if the farmers were not compelled to accept low prices for a commodity which, usually, rises sharply after it leaves the farm.

The producer's price plus the cost of milling has not made the 10-cent loaf, which is no larger than the 5-cent loaf that was sold at a good profit before the war.

Will the millers and the gamblers make the profits in wheat in 1917 and the farmers be left, as usual, with little or no profit upon their land and labor?—Courier-Journal.

The above editorial from the Courier Journal recites facts and is good. But what is the remedy suggested? Nothing.

If all leading papers like the Courier would suggest to Congress a conscription of the gamblers' profits along with the conscription of our young men, Congress will take the matter up. The Times has been suggesting this, but Congress pays but little attention to us. The big papers could and they should get busy on the job in an effective way.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

SLADE.

Mrs. Ford is still on the sick list, this week.

Miss Alma Hanks, of Bourbon county, is visiting her cousins, the Misses Ford.

Dennis Spencer and wife, of Nada, visited the family of Martin Ford, Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Bowen and daughter Maudie, were called to Rosslyn, Sunday to see Wayne Bowen, who has fever.

Miss Mattie McKnabb and little Miss Hazel Ewen of McCornick, visited the family of Mrs. Faulkner, Sunday.

Last Sunday Ansil Centers and wife were at Nada visiting Wm. Centers, who is suffering very seriously with stomach trouble.

Misses Mila Knox and Stella Congleton will teach the Slade consolidated school, this year. We had a fine school last year, and are counting on another successful term.

Misses Maudie and Anna Bowen have returned home from the State Normal School at Richmond. Maudie will teach the Pilot school again; and Annie, the Gray's Branch school.

Mrs. W. B. Congleton is visiting her children in Lexington. Miss Stella will meet her there, returning home from Monmouth, Illinois, where she has been attending school.

We are expecting an oil rig in our midst soon. Stakes are set for the location, on R. L. Hyton farm—better known as the Tom Lewis farm. Carl Hendrix owns lease. We are looking for some gushers.

Joe Burgess and wife of Wayne county, Ky., are boarding with Taylor Adams. The oil people are having trouble getting places to stay, but a boarding house will soon be ready on the Elijah Baker farm—or Hurvey lease.

In the Slade items last week we noted that the Clay City officers made the arrests at the Bridge, Sunday. You must not forget our efficient magistrate, Bob Demis, was there doing his duty and assisting in the work.

STOP COUGHING

The simplest and best way to stop coughs, is to take Foley's Honey and Tar

You get the curative influence of the pine balsam together with the mollifying effect of the honey, and other healing ingredients. It leaves a soothing coating on the inflamed tickling throat, raises phlegm easily and puts a quick end to hard wearing coughs.

R. F. Hall, M.D., writes: "One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar stopped a troublesome bronchial cough and irritation that had bothered me for fifteen years." Your dealer sells it. Try it.

ROSSLYN.

District Sunday School Convention at Rosslyn, July the 1st.

D. B. Thrasher is on the sick list.

John Morton visited his sister at Lomcard, Saturday.

Gertrude, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Derickson, is very sick.

Miss Sudie Conlee visited her sister, Mrs. Allen Wills, a few days last week.

Lewis Johnson attended court at Stanton Monday, after a visit with R. M. Marton.

Miss Lucy Daniel has returned to her home at Clay City to stay. We will miss her very much.

Mrs. Ellice Smyth has returned home after a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Rec Bowen.

Mrs. J. A. Bowen and children Maude and Garth, from Slade, are visiting relatives here this week.

Money in Cream

There are now five regular shippers of cream to the city markets from Clay City, and all of them are receiving very satisfactory prices. The test seems to be much better than last fall when this business started. The price last week was 42 cents per pound for the butter fat, and not one of these shippers received less than $6.00 for a five gallon of cream. One shipper, Mr. Moses McKinney, recently received $8.40 for a five gallon can of cream. His cream, in this case, tested 49 per cent butter fat.

The sooner more farmers of Powell county begin to ship cream to the high city markets, the sooner prosperity will dawn upon the old county.

Curtailing Passenger Trains

Following the cutting off of several Sunday excursions of the season, many railroads will also curtail passenger service during the crisis. This will probably bear endurance in some sections, but we do hope that the L. & E. service will not be further crippled, which it has been suggested would be later done, to one train each way a day.

HUNDREDS TELL OF EXPERIENCE

Kentuckians All Over State
'Find Tanlac Great Help.'

NEW TONIC GAINS FRIENDS

Hundreds of Kentuckians have come out publicly in praise of Tanlac. Men and women in every part of the state have been helped back to good health by this tonic. Here are just a few of the statements made by Blue Grass people in regard to Tanlac:

CRAB ORCHARD—Thos. Turner, retired farmer: "I was troubled with my stomach. I tried two bottles of Tanlac. It fixed me up. It is the best tonic I know of."

GEORGETOWN—James Switzer: "Tanlac has done me more good than anything I ever used. I wish you all the good luck you can have, and you can use my name in any paper you want to."

BEVIER—Mrs. Ida Taylor, housekeeper: "Would get out of breath easily and was nervous and couldn't eat. After taking Tanlac I began to get stronger, and my appetite came back. It helped me, and I know it will help others."

CENTRAL CITY—M. S. Yokley, farmer: "Was losing flesh and would get short of breath. I read how Tanlac was helping others and tried it. Now my nerves are all right, and I have put on weight."

WILLIAMSBURG—Judie Whikler, merchant: "Cramps that nothing seemed to relieve troubled me until I tried Tanlac. The first bottle improved me very much, and the third bottle made me feel about well."

INDIAN HEAD—W. S. Wilson: "Fifteen years is a long time to be bothered with my stomach, but I have taken four bottles of Tanlac and feel fifty percent better already. It is a wonderful remedy."

STEPHENSBURG—C. C. Paul, blacksmith: "Following pneumonia I stayed weak. Tanlac toned up my nerves, brought back my appetite and relieved me in every respect."

WORTHVILLE—H. W. Preisler, pharmacist: "Constipation bothered me, and after eating I often spat up particles of food. Tanlac fixed me up fine. I can recommend it highly."

Tanlac can be bought here at Eaton & McIntire's.

In re: Pearsite Company } In Bankruptcy.
Bankrupts }
Public Sale of Plant and Equipment of the Bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a judgment and order of sale entered by the Hon. H. C. Gudgeon, Referee, in the above styled case, the undersigned will as Trustee and at the hour of 12 o'clock M., at the plant of the bankrupt in Clay City, Powell county, Ky., and on Friday, the 22nd of June, 1917, proceed to offer at public auction and as a whole and to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the entire plant and equipment of the bankrupt with the exception hereinafter noted.

Said plant and equipment is as follows: Laboratory and chemicals, machines consisting of boilers, retorts, tanks, steel rails, steel trestle, hoisting engines and pumps, a lot of mine and mill supplies, structural steel building, firebrick, electrical supplies and wire, lot of cement and steel barrels, etc.

The Trustee will at the same time sell separately one certain lot of lumber on which Scobee & Son have been adjudged a prior lien.

Said property above ordered to be sold will be required to bring at least three-fourths of its appraised value, and the Trustee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

This plant was constructed with a view of manufacturing from coal various products which are extracted from coal, including benzol, toluyl and heavier oils, dye stuffs, coke, etc.

The bankrupt does not own the real property on which the plant is located, but the purchaser, if he does not desire to remove the property, may have the privilege of renewing the lease on said property at the sum of $300.00 per month for the period of from now to October 25, 1918, or he has the option of purchasing said property from the Fidelity and Columbia Trust Company as Receivers of the Day Lumber & Coal Company at the price of $25,000.

Witness my hand this May 18th A. D., 1917.

A. T. WHITT,

Trustee in Bankruptcy of Pearsite Company, Bankrupt.
